

The McDonald's All American Games Reveal the 48 Up-and-Coming Superstars Set to Make History

The 2024 class of high school basketball all-stars will take the court at Toyota Center in Houston

(CHICAGO — Jan. 23, 2024) – Today, the McDonald's All American Games Selection Committee unveils the final rosters of top high school athletes who will showcase their skills on the court at the 2024 McDonald's All American Games. For 48 elite high school basketball players – 24 girls and 24 boys – dreams will become reality as they carry on the four-decades long tradition of basketball greatness when they square off this April at Toyota Center in Houston.

The 2024 rosters were based on competitive criteria and chosen from a list of 729 nominees by some of the nation's top analysts, prep scouts, media and coaches. Since 1977, more than 1,600 players have donned the iconic McDonald's jersey, including names like Breanna Stewart, Kevin Durant, Candace Parker, Trae Young, Hannah Hidalgo, Reed Sheppard, and so many others.

Introducing the 23rd Class of All-Star Girls

The 2024 girls lineup features four players from California, the most represented state. This includes some of the area's top players such as Morgan Cheli (Archbishop Mitty High School – CA), Jordan Lee (Saint Mary's High School – CA), Mackenly Randolph (Sierra Canyon School – CA) and Kennedy Smith (Etiwanda High School – CA).

And to round out the roster, this squad will call on nationally ranked stars from across the country like Sarah Strong (Grace Christian School – NC), Joyce Edwards (Camden High School – SC) and Jaloni Cambridge (Montverde Academy – FL).

The Boys are Ready to Throw it Down

This year's 2024 boys lineup includes some of the game's elite talent, with five coming from California and another four from Florida.

From coast to coast, the rosters showcase incredible talent – with guys like Cooper Flagg (Montverde Academy – FL), Dylan Harper (Don Bosco Preparatory High School – NJ), Airious Bailey (McEachern High School – GA) and Valdez Edgcombe, Jr. (Long Island Lutheran High School – NY).

Coaching the Next Generation of Greats

Bringing these future stars together to work as a team over just a few days requires elite coaching. The committee has selected the four high school basketball coaches from different regions of the country who look to lead their team to victory:

- Girls East Team Coach, Fran Burbidge of Westtown School in Pennsylvania
- Girls West Team Coach, Ann Fritz of Blue Valley North High School in Kansas
- Boys East Team Coach, Sharman White of Pace Academy in Georgia
- Boys West Team Coach, Tommy Brakel of North Crowley High School in Texas
