2022 Games Jerseys

This year, in partnership with adidas and sportswear designer Eric Emanuel, McDonald's is outfitting the next generation of basketball stars in a newly designed jersey that the players will wear when they square off on March 29 at Chicago's Wintrust Arena. His designs take inspiration from the heritage of the Games and look to invoke nostalgia from iconic uniforms of the past.

The East teams will don navy blue jerseys.
